Seat of contention

Do we live in a sick society, or what? Consider the following:

The movie house chair that Lee Harvey Oswald was arrested in has been uprooted from a Dallas theater and will become part of the John F. Kennedy exhibit at the Texas School Book Depository.

Maxine Burroughs, manager of the UA Texas Theater, said the red upholstered chair, which was sprayed black after Kennedy's assassination, became quite a tourist attraction.

"I wish it could have stayed here," Burroughs said, "but the spot still will be marked." Popcorn, anyone?
